Day 2 | Delhi - Nalagarh.

Nalagarh is a beautiful hill station situated at the base of the Himalayan foothills. It is also famous for its medieval palace and excellent wall paintings offering a Royal experience at an unusual place! While continuing Ladakh trip, We are offering you an ideal break midway between Delhi and Manali, your next stop in the Himalayas.

Visiting Places: Jama Masjid, Government Buildings, Humayun's Tomb, Qutb Minar

Day 3 | Nalagarh - Manali

Your journey through sinewy roads and verdant green vegetation in the Himalayas begins. You would be going through small Himalayan villages seeing children going to school, women folk working in the fields and the invigorating smell of the pines bringing you close to nature as you drive along the sacred Beas River all the way till Manali. En route to Manali tourism, visit a lovely small hill town called Naggar and discover its ancient secrets in wooden palaces and temples!

Visiting Places: Nagar Village, Landscape

Day 4 | Manali

A walk in Old Manali town, a drive to the old city of Vashist with its beautiful wooden temple, you may try the medicinal hot water baths of Vashist right next to the temple, the day passes by listening to the whistling pines and the gushing Beas River. Prepare yourself for the magnificent drives in your Manali tourism over the next two days!

You may want to have a look at and book some of our special Manali honeymoon packages if you are newly married and excited to spend some time with your partner. Fill up this form.
